This sophisticated golf course get away provides a comfortable home away from home for these empty-nesters. The home was carefully designed from the ground up using a restrained monochromatic palette while striking a balance of textures, contrasts and scale. Steel and walnut detailing differentiates this home from its neighbors.

This contemporary retreat's tone is set with the custom entry console table, with rich hues and graceful presence. The style continues in the living room with the 20' walnut unit, providing storage and concealed entry into the guest suite. The dining room boasts seating for 10 and amazing skyline views.
